Do you hurt the one you love?

Psychologists have long studied the concept of people who care for one other have a tendency to hurt the one they love. Think of intense dialogue between spouses, the challenge of correcting a child and the way we have talked to one another at times. I struggle in these areas too. We only improve when we realize we need to change & turn to Scripture for direction in relation to our verbal behavior.

CONTROL-James 3:7-8 says For every kind of beast and bird, of reptile and creature of the sea, is tamed and has been tamed by mankind. But no man can tame the tongue, it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison. We are not being told we can't choose what comes out of our mouths. Man has the ability to capture & tame animals but struggles to subdue the deadliest creature of all, the tongue.

PRACTICE LOVE-Galatians 6:10 says Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all especially to those who are of the household of faith. Everyone is struggling with something. Like Jesus, we are to serve one another not because we have an ulterior motive; we are to serve because we reflect Christ. Our brothers & sisters in Christ are family. Do we display "family love" towards our Christian siblings?

FORGIVE-Ephesians 4:32 says And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you. We forgive because, as sinners, we have been forgiven by Christ through our response to the Gospel. Our Savior forgives & forgets our sins, so should we!

We have hurt and been hurt. Let's all try to think before we speak, love always, & forgive quickly and often!

Growing in Prayer

Most of us would like to be “better” at prayer. We’d like to do it more often and with more power. Just like the disciples of Jesus who came to Him and said, “Lord, teach us to pray” (Luke 11:1), we long for divine guidance in this area.

One of the great pertinent passages to consult is Colossians 4:2-4:

Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving. At the same time, pray also for us, that God may open to us a door for the word, to declare the mystery of Christ, on account of which I am in prison—that I may make it clear, which is how I ought to speak.

- Continue Steadfast—Don’t give up! Be persistent! Don’t quit!
- Be Watchful—Be specific in requests, petitions, confessions, and admissions of struggles. Vague generalities simply are not good enough. This becomes extremely helpful in our ongoing quest to avoid temptation. (cf. Mark 14:38)
- Be Thankful—Giving careful thought to the blessings that have come our way helps us to avoid being selfish. (cf. James 4:1-3)
- Think of Others—Paul said, in effect, “In addition to praying for yourself, pray for us too.” A mature faith is demonstrated in the fact that one will not only include others in their prayers, but one will pour out heart and soul on behalf of others. It was said that Epaphras was “always struggling on your behalf in his prayers, that you may stand mature and fully assured in all the will of God” (Col. 4:12). When we pray, do we “struggle” on behalf of others?
- Be Spiritually Minded—It is righteous and good to pray for the physically sick...but our prayers for others must not be limited to this! We must pray for Gospel opportunities! We must pray for open doors for the word to be spread! We must pray for the sin-sick and lost.

Thank You Note

I just can’t say enough thanks, thanks, thanks to all of you at South Green that was interested in my well being last Sunday when I didn’t want to go to the hospital, and you knew best. I want to give a special thanks to the one that was to take me home for they gave me special care and got thing to help me and get what I needed in every way. I also give special thanks to the ones that went along to the hospital and stayed with me until family member, my sister, got there. Thanks goes to all others that visited me, called the hospital, and the prayers that several told me were said for me. Hope I’ll soon be ok and can come to services but right now I don’t know when. Please keep me in your prayers.

Love,
Ruth Stephens
