Being Recognized

(Lessons From Driving the Church Bus)

A few weeks ago, me and Amy drove one of the church buses to a congregation in Nashville to return Vacation Bible School material our congregation borrowed last summer. On our way back, we stopped at a little gas station. While refueling, a nice gentlemen approached me and was so happy to see the words on the side of the bus we were in! He began to tell us how many people he has known that have been part of our church family. Our congregation's name immediately jogged his memory of not only the people, but for what we stand for and Who we represent. This short interaction reminded me of these lessons:

1. What is our identity outside of our meeting places? John 13:35 says, "By this all will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another." While I barely new the man's name who approached us at the gas pumps, I felt an immediate connection with him because of his love for the Lord and brothers and sisters in Christ.
2. Relationships can be used to open doors and further conversations. Romans 8:28 says, "And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose." When we seek to be "known" as a follower of Christ, we have a greater opportunity to bear fruit for His purpose regardless of the circumstances we find ourselves.
3. May we always be ready to be the ambassador Christ expects us to be! I Peter 3:15 says, "But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you with meekness and fear;" Being recognized is an opportunity not for pride, but for proclamation. While this brother in Christ demonstrated his faith and I didn't have to give a defense, I was encouraged by his conversation and the love he exhibited. It was obvious Who he served!

The Saturday morning we sat out for a nice drive together in an effort to be of service to our congregation turned out to be a reminder that people really are watching and noticing us. The world would have us to swell with self-elevation and self-glorification. However, this attitude is dangerous! Due to the increase use of social media platforms and the thirst for success in our culture, we may see visibility as way to be "seen." But, let's use our recognition opportunities to be of service. Putting gas in the church bus taught me Who I serve. I never want to forget that!

Ladies Bible Class

Ladies Bible Class will be held on Thursday morning at 10:00 AM in the church basement. All ladies are invited to attend.

Thank You Note

South Green Family,

Thank you so much for the Bible presented to me as a graduation gift from the church family. It was very thoughtful and much appreciated. It will be put to good use over the coming years. Thank you for such a nice gift and for the recognition. Also, to all those who hand delivered congratulation cards, thank you for your kind words and gifts! They sincerely touched my heart.

In Christian Love,
Preston Pace

Taylor Christian Camp

It's TCC week! Please be praying for the campers and staff of TCC. Pray that everyone will grow spiritually, remain safe and healthy. Camp will end, Friday, June 13, at 11:00.
